FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

New Vice President of Programs Named for Catholic Social Services of Southern Nebraska

Lincoln, Neb., September, 2021 – Bringing a wealth of experience in the non-profit organization management industry, Mario Racicot of Lincoln is now the Vice President of Programs for Catholic Social Services (CSS) of Southern Nebraska. Racicot will lead our social services operation that assists, accompanies, and affects social change and the betterment of individuals, families, and the common good. He is responsible for supervising all social services programs at our four regional offices, which include Auburn, Hastings, Imperial, and Lincoln.

Mario comes to us most recently from Big Brothers Big Sisters Lincoln where he was the executive director and served the Lincoln community's underprivileged and at-risk youth. As a former immigrant, orphan, foster child, and recipient of many people's generosity, he is excited to be a part of bringing hope into the lives of all those that CSS serves.

"I am humbled and honored to be a part of this mission in being the hands and feet of Christ in our local community."

Catholic Social Services of Southern Nebraska provides food market & meal services, emergency services including rent and utility assistance, disaster relief, refugee and immigration services, St. Gianna Women's Homes, and a clinical and family counseling program. Founded in 1932, CSS serves all individuals across the 24,000 square miles in southern Nebraska, regardless of faith. For more information, visit www.csshope.org or call (402) 474-1600.
