St. John Eudes/Gary Bouc

Protecting the vulnerable

Born in Normandy, France in 1601, John Eudes enjoyed a humble upbringing. A son of a farmer, he went on to become one of the most impactful priests for the role he played in the religious renewal of 17th century France. St. John Eudes became known for his gift of preaching, and through his travels he recognized a need to improve the spirituality of the priests and within the seminaries. In response to this need, he received papal approval to open seminaries and confraternities dedicated to the Sacred Heart. St. John Eudes became especially known as the father and promoter of the liturgical devotion to the Heart of Jesus and Mary.

As he went about his missionary work, St. John Eudes became aware of the poorly ran and unreliable shelters for at-risk women who were trying to rebuild their lives. In 1641, St. John Eudes created the Order of Our Lady of Charity of the Refuge in Caen. This group was so successful in assisting women seeking help that it received papal approval from Pope Alexander VII.

Gary Bouc and two organizations that he belongs to continue to help women being served at St. Gianna Women's Homes (SGWH).

Gary is a member of the Capitol City Ford & Mustang Club. Their 41st All Makes Auto & Truck Show is coming up on Sunday, September 11th. Held at the Southeast Community College campus at 8800 O Street in Lincoln, the show runs from 8:00 AM-4:00 PM. Once again this year, SGWH is one of the charities that show proceeds will go to support. Gary is also a member and officer in the Knights of Columbus Council 10510 based in St. Peter parish, Lincoln. For years, the St. Peter's Knights have provided lunch at this All Makes Auto & Truck Show, and once again this year they will share the proceeds of the cookout with SGWH. All are invited to come enjoy the show, or visit www.ccfmclub.com if you are interested in registering your vehicle for the show.

Thanks Gary, the Capitol City Ford & Mustang Club and the Knights of Columbus Council 10510 for bringing hope in the good life to those we serve at St. Gianna Women's Homes.
